

GLUM OBSERVER — Possibly regretting the fact that it will be many years before she is eligible to vote, two-year-old Mimi Jackett listens as her mother, Mrs. Edward C. Jackett, and Victor Women's Club members Mrs. Robert Newcomer and Mrs. Dale Wood discuss plans for the club's all-out campaign to get voters to the polls next election day. The club has as its aim the encouraging of civic participation in the community. They plan to contact all residents in the tract, reminding them to get out and vote.

Victor Women Work For Voting Record

The membership of the Victor Woman's Club is striving for a record turnout at the polls on election day. To promote their aim in encouraging civic participation in the community they will contact all residents in the Victor Tract on or before election day with a reminder to vote. Posters, telephone calls, and circulars will be used in this all out effort.

Coffees for council candidates are being held in many homes throughout the area. The Victor Woman's Club is also sponsoring a rally for the mayor candidates at the Victor School on Thursday, March 29th, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Robert Newcomer, civic chairman, states that this is the most important project that the club attempted. They hope other organizations will promote "get out and vote campaigns" in their areas.

Chocolate Candy Being Sold by Torrance League

Torrance National Little Leaguers are loading up with candy this week—but not in the usual sense of a young man turned loose in a candy shop.

The youths are stacking packages of chocolate delicacies in preparation for their door-to-door sale which starts next Tuesday, March 27, according to the sale's co-chairmen Mrs. Lloyd Goddard.

"This is the National Little League's fund-raising project of the year," Mrs. Goddard said, "so we hope all of Torrance will forget to count calories for one week and support the drive by purchasing a box of can-

Rummage Sale to Feature Usable Household Items

South Bay Anna Grancell Chapter of Cedars-Sinai Hospital and Clinic is holding a rummage sale Thursday, Friday, and Saturday March 22, 23, and 24, at 1276 Sartori Ave., Torrance. Sale will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Many usable articles will be on sale. Clothing, toys, shoes, kitchen utensils will be included.

Mrs. Murray Kaufman is chairman. Members having rummage to be picked up can call Mrs. Kaufman, FR 9-5034; Mrs. William Goldberg, DA 3-8656, or Mrs. Harry Kaplan, president, FR 5-0182.

Goal of the drive is $2,000 for the purchase of ball bats, uniforms and other equipment needed "so that every boy who wants to play baseball with the Little League can this year," she said.

To spur sales, the Little League team which sells the greatest number of boxes will be awarded a full day of fun at Disneyland. Additional prizes will be presented the runners-up.

Little League parents will supervise the sale. Mrs. Goddard said, so the boys will be supervised during the door-to-door campaign. Cost of the boxes of candy will be a nominal 50 cents.

SELLING SWEETS — Little Leaguer Gregory Jones, 9, makes the first sale in the Torrance National Little League door-to-door candy solicitation, to Mayor Albert Isen. Standing by, in case the mayor decides to buy more, is nine-year-old Keith Goddard. The sale, which actually begins next Tuesday, is the youths' fund-raising project of the year. Proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms and equipment for the Little League. Team selling the most boxes of chocolates will be awarded a full day's fun at Disneyland.
